

MARK BORMAN

President of Taylor Farms Foodservice

As the son of Sacramento Valley walnut farmers, Mark Borman's success in the industry came from humble, hardworking beginnings.

Borman started in the industry in 1995 after graduating from the University of California Davis with a degree in Agriculture. He began his career on the operations side of the business in the early days of value-added salads and in 2010, Mark became President of Taylor Farms California.

He takes pride in being part of the growth of Taylor Farms and his role in developing a company that's innovative in creating healthy fresh products as well as one that creates opportunities for people that are part of the Taylor Farms family.